

Back again.?

Hello,

Sorry for being "away" but I went on vacation and discovered that the fabulous Internet I used last year was "over sold" so it was impossible to use. Right now I have, to recoup, set my Firefox to auto-browse random pages so hopefully I shall be normal again in a bit, two weeks without Internet is a harsh punishment :)

Anyways, since you have all been working greatly I shall go over the back log and post replies in the next few days, need to do some laundry and what not as well so might take a day or two...
